PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 1037 was introduced on February 12, 2009, by Representative Stephanie Herseth Sandlin of South Dakota, Chairwoman of the Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity of the Committee on Veterans’ Affairs. H.R. 1037, as amended, directs the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to conduct a five-year pilot project to test the feasibility and advisability of expanding the scope of certain qualifying work-study activities.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The VA was first authorized to provide student veterans with a work-study allowance with the enactment of Public Law 92–540 (86 Stat. 1095). Currently, student veterans enrolled three-fourths or full-time in college degree programs, vocational programs or professional programs are eligible to participate in the work-study allowance program. In addition, certain veterans with service-connected disabilities are given priority for available work-study jobs within normal commuting distances.

Under the current work-study program, veterans that qualify for the VA work-study program are limited to positions involving VA-related work, such as processing VA paperwork, performing outreach services, and assisting staff at VA medical facilities or the offices of the National Cemetery Administration. During the 110th Congress, Committee staff was informed that student veterans were not given sufficient work-study opportunities similar to those offered to non-veteran students who have the option of working in academic departments and student services.

To expand the scope of the work-study program, Representative Herseth Sandlin introduced H.R. 6224, the Pilot College Work Study Programs for Veterans Act of 2008, in the 110th Congress. In the 111th Congress, Representative Herseth Sandlin re-introduced this measure as H.R. 1037.

Enclosure.

H.R. 1037—Pilot College Work Study Programs for Veterans Act of 2009

H.R. 1037 would require the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to conduct a five-year pilot program to expand work-study opportunities for veterans. Assuming appropriation of the specified amounts, CBO estimates that implementing this program would cost $47 million over the 2010–2014 period. Enacting the bill would not affect direct spending or revenues.

The current work-study program is limited to positions in certain VA facilities and, on campus, to assisting other veterans in obtaining veterans' education benefits. Under this pilot, veterans could also take positions in academic departments and student services. H.R. 1037 would authorize the appropriation of $10 million each year over the 2010–2014 period for this program. Given information from VA, CBO anticipates that nearly 3,500 additional veterans each year would participate in work study under this provision. CBO estimates that costs to VA would increase by $7 million in 2010 and by $10 million each year over the 2011–2014 period, subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

H.R. 1037 contains no private-sector or intergovernmental mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act. Any costs to public institutions of higher education would be incurred voluntarily.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Camille Woodland. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates regarding H.R. 1037 prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act would be created by H.R. 1037.

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Pursuant to clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee finds that the Constitutional authority for H.R. 1037 is provided by Article I, section 8 of the Constitution of the United States.

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE LEGISLATION

This section provides the short title of H.R. 1037, as amended, as the “Pilot College Work Study Programs for Veterans Act of 2009.”
