PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

S. 1078 would allow Mrs. Elizabeth Eks Bassey, Emmanuel O. Paul Bassey and Mary Idongesit Paul Bassey to adjust to permanent resident status.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR THE LEGISLATION

Paul Bassey and his wife Elizabeth were career employees with the U.S. Department of State. Mr. Bassey was a Nigerian citizen employed with the U.S. government since 1961. In 1991 Mr. Bassey received special immigrant status from the State Department in recognition of his service to the U.S. Government. He was approved for an employment 4th preference visa petition as a result of his special immigrant status. During that same year, Zaire erupted into a civil war and the American Embassy began evacuating Americans and employees of the embassy. Due to the emergency circumstances, the Embassy was working on a skeleton staff and was desperate for help. Embassy officials asked Mr. Bassey to delay his retirement for another year to help them through the crisis. Despite the grave danger and hardship for him and his family, Mr. Bassey agreed. In May 1992, Mr. Bassey died of a heart attack prior to immigrating to the US under his approved special immigrant status. Mrs. Bassey and the children were advised that they were ineligible for special immigrant status, although all would have qualified had they been accompanying Mr. Bassey to the U.S. The only available remedy is private legislation.

The beneficiary, Mrs. Bassey, is a native and citizen of Nigeria. Mrs. Bassey and her daughter Mary (age 17) were paroled into the US on December 18, 1993, for humanitarian reasons and they have remained in the US since that date. Mrs. Bassey's parole was extended until August 9, 2000. She is currently living in Raleigh, NC with Mary and Jacob. Jacob Bassey (age 26) entered the US on August 14, 1991 with a F-1 student visa and has remained in the US since that date. Emmanuel Bassey (age 29) entered the US on January 8, 1989, on a F-1 student visa and lives alone in Chapel Hill, NC. Elizabeth was a career employee with the US Government having served the American Embassy in Zaire for 12 years in the Joint Administrative Office (JAO) and received a distinguished honor award for her work at the American Embassy.

COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

On October 11, 2000, the Committee on the Judiciary met in open session and ordered reported favorably the bill S. 1078 without amendment by voice vote, a quorum being present.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS

In compliance with clause 2(l)(3)(A) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the committee reports that the findings and recommendations of the committee, based on oversight activities under clause 2(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, are incorporated in the descriptive portions of this report.

COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM FINDINGS

No findings or recommendations of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight were received as referred to in clause 2(l)(3)(D) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY AND TAX EXPENDITURES

Clause 2(l)(3)(B) of House Rule XI is inapplicable because this legislation does not provide new budgetary authority or increased tax expenditures.

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

In compliance with clause 3(d)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the committee believes that the bill would have no significant impact on the Federal budget. This is based on the Congressional Budget Office cost estimate on S. 1078. That Congressional Budget Office cost estimate follows:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, October 11, 2000.

Hon. HENRY J. HYDE, Chairman,
Committee on the Judiciary,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has reviewed 11 private relief acts, which were ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on October 11, 2000. CBO estimates that their enactment would have no significant impact on the federal budget. These acts could have a very small effect on fees collected by the Immigration and Naturalization Service and on benefits paid under certain federal entitlement programs. Because these fees and expenditures are classified as direct spending, pay-as-you-go procedures would apply. The act reviewed is:

- S. 1078, an act for the relief of Mrs. Elizabeth Eka Bassey, Emmanuel O. Paul Bassey, and Mary Idongesit Paul Bassey;

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Mark Grabowicz, who can be reached at 226–2860. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

Sincerely,

DAN L. CRIPPEN, Director.

Pursuant to rule XI, clause 2(1)(4) of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the committee finds the authority for this legislation in article 1, section 8, clause 4 of the Constitution.

AGENCY VIEWS

The comments of the Immigration and Naturalization Service on S. 1078 are as follows:

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE,
Washington, DC, September 30, 1999.

Hon. ORRIN HATCH, Chairman,
Committee on the Judiciary,
United States Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: This is in reference to your request for a report relative to S. 1078, for the relief of Elizabeth Bassey and her children, Emmanuel, Jacob, and Mary.

The bill would grant the beneficiaries having been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence as of the date of the enactment of the Immigration and Nationality Act upon payment of the required visa fees. The bill would also direct the proper visa number deduction.

Sincerely,

ALLEN ERENBAUM, Director,
Congressional Relations.
